RHODES DRYLAND TRAVERSE – RACE RULES

1. Doping Offences

- 1.1 The race organisers reserve the right to test all riders for doping and/or the use of any illegal substances.
- 1.2 Any person who is under provisional or final sanction by an Anti-Doping Organisation with jurisdiction under the WADA Code (“a person under sanction”) is prohibited from participating or being involved in the race, whether as a rider, team manager or official or in any other capacity whatsoever. Any such sanction, in place by 1 January 2016 irrespective of when the offense was committed, shall apply for the life of the person under sanction (irrespective of the duration of the sanction imposed by the relevant Anti-Doping Organisation).
- 1.3 Where any such sanction has been made final for an offence committed after 1 January 2016, such prohibition shall also apply for the life of the person under sanction (irrespective of the duration of the sanction imposed by the relevant Anti-Doping Organisation).
- 1.4 Should the race organisers only become aware that any rider, team manager or official is a person under sanction after having accepted such rider’s entry and/or team manager or official’s participation in the race, such entry or right of participation shall immediately be cancelled.
- 1.5 The organisers also reserve the right to refuse any athlete (professional or amateur), whom was under sanction during any part of their career, to participate in the race.
- 1.6 Should any athlete under sanctioning, as stated in points 2 and 3 above, participate in the race and the organiser is not aware of the status of the athlete, then all prize monies and/or any prizes received must be returned to the organiser within 7 days of such request.

This includes forces of nature (extreme weather conditions) as well as national and global medical emergencies (pandemic outbreak).
- 10.2 In the event of the above, Dryland and its partners will do everything in its power to postpone an event to a suitable date within a reasonable time. If the postponement is not an option or impossible to execute, then cancellation will apply. Please note there will be no refunds for a Force Majeure, which includes entry fees, optional extras or costs (e.g. flights and accommodation etc.) incurred outside of the actual event.

9. Apparel

- 9.1 The deadline for complimentary apparel and online purchases will be 31 August 2019. We cannot place extra orders after this date, which means you will not receive any complimentary apparel. No exceptions will be made!

10. Medical

10.1 It is the runner's responsibility to ensure that he/she is well prepared to take on a race of this nature and the medical questionnaire must be handed in before or at registration.

10.2 The race doctor and his medical team reserves the right to prevent any runner from continuing the race if it deems necessary. Their decision is final.

10.3 The medical team will be available to assist with strapping but runners will have to buy the necessary tape and plaster from the race office.

11. Daily start

11.1 The start chute closes 5 minutes prior to the start of the race and runners not arriving on time will start at the back.

12. Timekeeping

12.1 The race starts each day at 8:30 sharp. If any start times have to be changed, notice hereof will be conveyed at the compulsory race briefing.

12.2 The time of the 2nd runner of the team that crosses the finish line will be the teams' official finishing time.

12.3 Runners will not be allowed to start late – everyone starts together.

12.4 The race cut off remains the same even in case of a late start.

13. Cut off times and withdrawals

13.1 Cut off times are very generous allowing even the back markers to easily finish – see cut of times below:

- Stage 1 | At water point 2 – 5hrs
- Stage 2 | At water point 2 – 4hrs
- Stage 3 | At finish – 3hrs
- The race organizers still reserve the right to extend the cut-off times during the race at their discretion.

13.2 A runner not making the cut off will be allowed to continue all stages, but will not be declared an official finisher.

13.3 Runners are allowed to miss 1 stage cut off, the 2nd time the cut off is missed this runner will not be allowed to continue in the race.

13.4 Any withdrawals have to be communicated to the race office immediately.

13.5 A runner that withdraws during the race must please convey his/her intentions to the nearest marshal.

13.6 A sweep vehicle will transport all withdrawals to the stage finish venue.

14. Stages

14.1 The organizers reserve the right to change a stage or completely abandon a stage, if necessary.

14.2 Such a stage (as in 14.1) will be declared a non-event and have no bearing on the overall results.

15. Traffic rules

15.1 General traffic rules apply on public roads.

15.2 The Rhodes Dryland Traverse does not have any road closure, so please adhere to above (15.1) rules.

16. Runner separation

16.1 Runners of the same team have to run together at all times.

16.2 Team runners who are separated from their running partner for more than 2 minutes during any time of a stage will be penalized by 30 minutes.

16.3 The checking of runner separation will be checked en-route or at the finish line.

17. Water points

17.1 The exact location of the water points will be advertised in advance.

18. Support

18.1 Medical assistance will be supplied en-route in the form of medical officers and at water points.

18.2 We do not allow assistance to any runner from anyone outside of the race; that being in the form of medical, nutritional or technical assistance.

18.3 Outside assistance is only allowed at the designated spectator points.

18.4 No other seconding vehicles other than that of Rhodes Dryland Traverse are allowed on the route. If any non-official seconding vehicle can be linked to a specific runner or team, it will result in a time penalty, with a second offence resulting in immediate disqualification.

19. Teams

19.1 In the case of a withdrawal of a runner, a new team cannot be formed.

19.2 It remains the responsibility of the runner to inform the race organizer of his team's change in status.

19.3 The remaining team member will complete the race in the Out Of Category section. He/she will receive a Finisher's medal and official result, but no Prize money.

20. Runner etiquette

20.1 The integrity of each runner is relied upon with regards to staying on the course and competing within the rules.

20.2 If a runner leaves the course, for whatever reason, he has to enter the course at the exact same spot he exited it.

20.3 Basic runner etiquette applies at all times, not bringing the sport in disrepute.

20.4 We travel through ecologically sensitive areas and persistent littering will result in disqualification. Any form of littering will result in fines imposed.

20.5 Keep all your rubble for the water points where race officials will erect disposable bag stands.

*Please note that the win is provisional until all winning criteria are met which includes compliance to the event rules and regulations. To be in contention for the stage prize money, the team has to finish the race. The final decision lies with the race organizers. Attendance for the final prize giving is compulsory if you wish to receive your prize money. * Race rules may be changed without notice.*
